

Year 6 Long Term Overview

Autumn Ancient Greece South America		Spring Changing Power of Monarchy UK – Europe		Summer Changing Power of Monarchy Australia and Oceania
Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Text: Way Home by Libby Hathorn  Outcomes Short write: To write a poem with the given title – The Cat in the Window. Children to use the text illustrations. Final write: To produce a non-fiction leaflet or webpage about homelessness. Make links with Step-by- Step/ Shelter charities. Purpose: To entertain and to inform	Text: The Piano (2023-24) Outcome: Recount in the form of a letter  Text: Dulce Decorum Est  Outcomes Short write: Write a poem using Dulce et decorum est Final write: To write a letter or diary from a soldier at war, describing their experiences. Purpose: To entertain	Text: The Island by Armin Greder  Outcomes Short write: Using the theme of being an 'outsider' write in role (child's choice from either text) of a significant event – narrative (to include dialogue) Final write: Write a letter to the characters in the text to look after refugees. GD: A letter (formal) to their MP to importance of acceptance of refugees. (Link to Mo Farah) Purpose: To entertain and	Text: Macbeth  Outcomes Short write: Write a report explain the events. To include direct and indirect speech Final write: Write a speech in the role of Lady Macbeth Purpose: To entertain and to persuade	Text: The Giant's Necklace by Michael Morpurgo  Outcomes Short write: A statement to the police (in the first person) from the parents of the missing girl (recount) Short writes: To write a narrative scene to include dialogue, from the girls voice – trying to persuade her parents to let her stay on the beach. Final write: Newspaper report retelling the tragic death of the girl on the beach. Purpose: To entertain, to	Text: Pandora Discovered (video)  Outcomes https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GBGDmin_38E Short write: descriptive narrative for an astronaut who has landed on the planet Pandora (to include dialogue) Final write: Non Chronic Report detailing information about the pupils' own planet. Purpose: To inform.

		to persuade		persuade and to inform.
Text: Shackleton's Journey by William Grill and Ice Trap  Outcomes Short write: Write a motivational speech to the crew when the ship is stuck in the ice. Short write: Write a newspaper article about the ships return (recount) Final Write: A narrative retelling of a part of Shackleton's journey (child's choice) To enhance storytelling,	Text: War Horse by Michael Morpurgo  Outcomes Outcomes Short write: To write a description of the battle field from the viewpoint of a main character (Child's choice) Purpose: To entertain Final write: To write a non-chronological report about life in the trenches Purpose: To persuade and to inform	Text: Coraline by Neil Gaiman  Outcomes Short write: A character description (child's choice) Final write: Write a narrative scene describing settings (between the real world and the alternate world). GD To compare and contrast the two worlds	Text: The Alchemists letter  Outcomes Short write: Write a guide explaining how the machine works. Non-chronological report. Purpose: To inform Final write: Write a letter from Nicholas to his son or his wife, explaining what he has done and why. It may start with justification as to why he has done it but finish with his regret. (Include flashbacks for GD) Recount Purpose: To entertain	SATS	Text: True Story of the Five Little Pigs  Outcomes Rewrite a traditional fairy-tale from a different point of view. Purpose: To entertain and to persuade.

including dialogue. Purpose: To persuade, inform, entertain
---	--	--	--	--	--

Instructions entertain narrative diary letter speech

Debate